1. Police Reports: March 28 – April 11, 2016.
  2. March Library report.
  3. We received $50,000 from the West Oxford Agricultural Society, Fryeburg Fair Association, as their contribution in Lieu of Taxes. They also contributed $50,000 in October 2015 which makes a $100,000 contribution in Lieu of Taxes for the 2016 tax year. This contribution reduces the mill rate by approximately $.25. On behalf of the tax payers in Fryeburg, I would like to thank the West Oxford Agricultural Society for this very generous contribution.
  4. Rick Kiesman has assembled 3 more benches for Graustein Park. The material for these benches was donated by Dick Krasker. Bob Hatch engraved “The Town of Fryeburg on the benches. I would like to thank the trio for their donations.
  5. The bid proposals for hauling and disposal will be mailed by the end of the week. Due date for the proposal will be due by May 4th.
  6. Information about legislation to increase the Oxford County Tax Assessment for County Jails.
  7. Second half of 2016 property taxes due Friday April 15th.
  8. Brad Littlefield volunteered to fix the fence between the American Legion building and the houses bordering Pine Street. Brad purchased broken sections and posts that need to be replaced. We would like to extend our thanks to Brad for volunteering for this project.
